THE LEPA/GOHSEP ANNUAL WORKSHOP SCHEDULED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE 2013 GULF STATES HURRICANE CONFERENCE

BATON ROUGE (June 5, 2013) –

The 2013 Louisiana Emergency Preparedness Association Workshop will take place in New Orleans June 10th-June 12th. It will be followed by the Gulf States Hurricane Conference from June 10th- June 14th. The events are hosted by LEPA and the Louisiana Governor's Office of Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness (GOHSEP.) Both will be held at the Hilton Riverside in New Orleans.

GOHSEP Director Kevin Davis will attend along with emergency management directors from Mississippi and Alabama. Senior FEMA leadership will also be part of the activities.

There will be lectures on topics like mass care strategy for the Gulf Coast, cyber security for disaster management, Super Storm Sandy recovery for the Northeast U.S. and new technology for emergency management.

FEMA Chief Counsel Brad Kieserman will provide an overview of the Hurricane Sandy Recovery Act.

Dozens of vendors will also have exhibits on display.

Remember to get a game plan this hurricane season. Go to www.getagameplan.org for a list of supplies and instructions on preparing you and your loved ones.
